PANCAKES, NOT JUST FOR BREAKFAST ANYMORE

When I was growing up, we never had pancakes for supper. I don’t know when the shift happened, it was sometime after my marriage to Steve, but somewhere along the line pancakes, scrambled eggs, waffles, even oatmeal, those traditional breakfast foods suddenly became dinner options. Now, I think I eat breakfast for dinner more often than I eat breakfast for breakfast. (Did you follow that?)

Well, did you know Engaging Worship, is not just for Easter anymore too? I know, the analogy doesn’t quite fit, the Church has had strongly engaging worship throughout history, not just at Eastertide, but not everyone knows that. One of our goals at Central Lutheran Church is to provide engaging worship opportunities for Central’s disciples every weekend, not just at Christmas or Eastertide. A big part of that is music. Not only at Central do we have countless opportunities to hear professional state and local musicians share their talent, Central has a whole host of incredibly talented musicians of our own. I hope you’ve noticed the increased presence of our youth in worship leadership along with the countless musicians who share their vocal and instrumental talent to enhance worship. Take an extra moment and notice who’s leading worship on any given weekend and take the time to thank them for sharing their gifts with us. Without them, worship would certainly be flat (as flat as a pancake perhaps?)

With joy, Pastor Rem
DREAM BIG
The youth of Central have several important milestones coming up. For some it is High School Graduation, for others it is Confirmation. I’d like to host a semi-formal meal to honor these young people as they mature as disciples of Jesus. I am targeting the evening of May 23rd for the High School Graduation Milestone and October 23rd for the Confirmation Milestone. I need cooks, table decorators, servers and clean-up help. Interested? Contact Pastor Rem, 452-5156 or remclc@hbci.com
They are special young people and honoring them is our privilege. Help us do it up right.

Enjoy a Pancake Breakfast—YUM!
The Youth invite you to Grace Hall for a pancake breakfast, served from 8:45—10:45 MAY 3 & JUNE 7. Cost is $7.00. Middle and High School youth will use the proceeds to fund their attendance at the ELCA National Youth Gathering in Detroit and their summer mission trip to Green Bay. Your support of them and their efforts is always greatly appreciated.

Flower Delivery—
May 9
If you ordered flower baskets from the youth they will be available for pick-up Saturday morning, May 9. Thank you so much for your support of the youth summer trips.

TEENS GATHER WITH THEIR PARENTS TO TALK ABOUT FAITH
On May 20 from 6:30—7:30pm our 7th and 8th graders will gather with their parents to talk about living their faith all the time, everywhere they go. Having spent the year studying the Apostle’s Creed and the Ten Commandments the teens will have an opportunity to share with their parents their ideas of how faith and life intersect. It’s a wonderful opportunity for families to spend time deepening their faith and connecting with one another. Please pray for them as they spend time in this important discussion.
SUMMER WORSHIP SCHEDULE

Beginning May 24 and continuing through to September 13 we will have one Sunday morning worship service at 9:15 am. Saturday’s service will continue as normal at 5:30 pm each Saturday.

Perhaps you’ve noticed that we’ve extended the summer schedule by a week? This is to accommodate the God’s Work, Our Hands Community Service Day. Collaborating with Cedar Valley & Faith Lutheran Churches and the Lutheran Campus Center we send out teams to do projects that meet needs in our community. Please mark your calendar and plan to come on September 13 and make a difference in Winona. After all, we are “Central” to Winona.

THINK... FALL?

Jesus has asked us to “Go and make disciples”. It seems a good place to start is with our own children. Passing on the faith to the children in the congregation is incredibly important work. In September the Sunday School will be in need of many volunteers, from teachers to curriculum and supplies managers to teacher support. Our goal is to have a large group. It lightens the load and it’s more fun! Please pray about this. It is so important. Contact Pastor Rem with questions.

NEW ON-LINE FAITH FORMATION TOOLS

Looking for some devotions or prayer resources to deepen your faith? Can’t make it in to church, but want to “remember the Sabbath Day and keep it holy”? Hoping to get some understanding of your spiritual gifts.

Look no further than Central’s website, centrallutheranchurch.org.

Click the “Resources” tab at the top of the page and you’ll find resources for all of these needs and more. They’re there to help you live a vibrant faith, every day, everywhere.

Summer Worship Schedule Begins

May 24, 2015
Saturdays 5:30 p.m.
Sundays 9:15 a.m.

iVOLUNTEER LINK NOW AVAILABLE ON CENTRAL’S WEBSITE

Centrallutheranchurch.org

Central Lutheran Church is filled to the brim with generous people wanting to compassionately serve in our church, community and world. To make it easier for disciples to connect to service opportunities you will now find an iVolunteer link on Central’s website main page. Scroll about a third of the way down and see a large round circle with the word “Volunteer” beneath it. Click on this circle and you will be directed to a list of volunteer opportunities within Central Lutheran Church. Soon, we hope to add ways you can serve in our community and world. There are so many ways you can use your gifts and talents to bless others.

Volunteer today!

The Book group is finishing up the book "Letters from a Skeptic" and will meet on May 11 and 18 at 9:30 am at CLC. We will meet once a month in June, July and August with those dates not yet set. Please join us and we are open to ideas for summer discussion. We will begin in September and select a new book to read. Keep it in mind—it is fun, thought provoking and a good way to get to know other members of the congregation on a deeper basis. Join us anytime!

Grace Hall

Randy Krulish, is looking forward to sharing his story of faith and hope with the Central Lutheran Church community.

Three years ago, Randy wrote a book about a life-changing accident, which left him a quadriplegic at the age of 12. Randy’s book was written for one reason...to give hope to others. He is looking forward to sharing his story of faith with you!

EXHIBIT: Christian Images, Asian Eyes

On Display at Central Lutheran through June, 2015

Since the first Believers sketched the image of a fish in the sand to secretly identify themselves to others, Christians in whatever culture they find themselves have expressed faith through the visual arts.

Come experience the Christian Images as seen through Asian artists. The exhibit features signed prints by Chinese-born artist He Qi (Collection of Erik Floan & Central Lutheran Church) and Japanese printmaker Sadao Watanabe (Collection of Anne-Marie Dunbar). Also on view are artifacts from the time Christianity was outlawed in Japan (late 1500’s to 1872) including a large edict board from 1683 reminding the population that Christianity was illegal, and other “secret” signs and symbols which identified Japanese believers (Collection of Timothy Forester).

GET READY...It’s Time for
Central Lutheran Church’s Annual Plant Sale & Exchange
Saturday, May 23 8:00 a.m.—10:30 a.m.

Do you have annual or perennial flowers, plants, or vegetable starts? Bring them for donation or exchange to the CLC parking lot at the Huff St. entrance. Please mark plants with name, annual/perennial, sun/shade, color of the bloom and bring by 8:00 a.m. on the day of the sale.

Plants for sale for $1, $2, $3 respectively for small, medium, and large size. Come early, stop in and shop, greet friends, exchange plants for new, share planting tips and ideas. Take home new plants and ideas for your own garden. Proceeds go to seminary debt, retirement, and CLC Youth.
Honoring a Successful Music & Arts 2014-15 Season

The Music & Arts Series takes to heart our common commitment to Be Central to Winona by providing a mosaic of artistic expressions in a setting where faith, music, and arts thrive.

This year Music & Arts entered into an exciting new partnership with the Bach Society of Minnesota. Together we brought “Bach to Winona” through three concerts culminating with a towering performance of the St John Passion. Supporters and Sponsors from Central and the Winona community – people we call “Angles” – banded together to make this partnership possible; we are deeply grateful for this support!

Worship Topics & Taboos

Sundays at 9:15 am join Erik Floan, Director of Worship Music & Arts, as we explore a variety of worship topics & taboos. NOTE: Due to popular demand, the session on Central’s Stained Glass & Needlepoint Kneelers will be repeated in the near future.

May 3: A Naughty Hymn Festival: We don’t hate the Catholics, really... There are hymn texts we simply don’t sing anymore, for a variety of reasons. For example, nobody should miss singing this text penned by Martin Luther himself: “Lord, keep us in thy Word and work, Restrain the murderous Pope and Turk...” Come enjoy some quirky, odd, colorful, and a few downright shocking hymns which we won’t be singing at worship.

May 10: Repitching the Tent: The intersection of architecture, worship, & faith formation. Ever since Israel carted the Ark of the Covenant around the desert and then Solomon built his grand Temple God’s people have experienced a variety of Sacred Architecture. How does architecture influence worship and faith, and how do faith and worship influence architecture? How did Christian architecture evolve? What does a worship space “say” about us and to us? What are the strengths and barriers of Central’s worship space?

Worship is the heart of all we do
Given competition, is it ‘hub of our week, space of our regrouping’?

Reprinted from the May, 2015 issue of The Lutheran, page. 50

There is a Seattle-based caffeinated beverage company that goes to great lengths to provide excellent customer service. Its campaign is to make itself everyone’s “Third Place.” “First Place” is home, “Second Place” is work and “Third Place” is the local coffeehouse. There is meticulous training for employees, relentless market research and creative adaptability employed by the company to retain customers.

Employees practice the “hand-off plane” where they are taught to make eye contact when handing over the vente mocha latte to the customer. This is so the customer will have a transformative experience while sipping a cup of joe. And it works. In a letter to thank the staff a woman wrote: “You are the hub of our week, the space of our regrouping,” and she went on to describe a multigenerational, multicultural, multi-socioeconomic community where she and her family found comfort and a sense of belonging.

This is our competition.
We are church. At the heart of what we do is worship, and at the heart of our worship is the crucified and risen Christ. Everything else we do is formed, nourished, sustained and transformed by our life as a faith community gathered around word and sacrament, abiding in the love of God. Without this intentional, regular communion with God and each other it’s not possible for us to speak an authentic word of hope to a broken world — the world God so loves. When we gather for worship we hear God’s word of promise; we confess our helplessness; receive forgiveness; we pray; and we welcome new brothers and sisters through baptism, promising to support them in their walk in faith. We are fed with the bread of life and receive our Lord poured out for us. And then we are sent back into the world. Worship is essential for the church’s life and service.

But how much attention do we pay to the preparation and execution of our corporate worship? Is it the “hub of our week, the space of our regrouping”? Do we expect to have a transformative experience? The Third Commandment (Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy) and Martin Luther’s explanation (We are to fear and love God so that we do not neglect his word and the preaching of it, but regard it as holy and gladly hear and learn it) remind us that worship is central in the life of faith. Worship is not just another item on the list of programs and activities in a congregation. It is the heart.

Sometimes worship can become a sort of lived-in room — everything has become so familiar that we don’t notice the frayed furniture. What if we entered worship as if it were our first experience of it? What if we saw the congregation and the liturgy through the eyes of a guest? Is the building clean? Where is the real front door? Does anyone greet us? Is the bulletin easy to navigate? Where are the nursery and the restrooms? Are instructions for communion clear?

And what about the worship service itself? We are a liturgical church. There is a certain humility and beautiful communion in not trying to reinvent the service each time, but to join with brothers and sisters throughout the world and across the centuries. And please, please do not rewrite the creeds. It took the church a couple of centuries to come up with the Nicene Creed. Why do we think we can do better knocking it out on our laptop?

This has nothing to do with styles of music — there is a breadth of hymnody in Evangelical Lutheran Worship and related resources. Gospel, Bach, contemporary and world music are all powerful ways of hearing God’s word and singing praise. It’s good to be fluent in the musical vernacular of our communities and to try those of others.

Most of all we should come to worship expecting to be changed. We are touching, tasting, feeling, hearing and seeing the one who knows us and loves us completely. Our lives are restored. We are set free. Fed for the journey we are set loose to go in peace and serve the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Kitchen Chatter is always fun on Wednesday nights during the Feast. Of course Kevin shows up to deliver meals and has to sample the dessert. Kevin offers to carry out the heavy Kool-aid containers. Sandy, Nancy and Nancy show up to join in the chatter and make the coffee, make salad, dish up the desserts, and pack the homebound meals. More volunteers come, the milk gets poured, the dishes washed, salad made, and the joking and chattering continues. During this whole time God’s work is being done. We are feeding hungry people, people hungry for food and people hungry for community.
It’s not hard work... it is work and lots needs to be done, but thru it all we have fun. We do need some help. Please consider joining us. We need help with dish washing, setting up, serving, clean up and cooking... Especially cooking. We would love to have you team up with one of our existing cooks and “learn the ropes”. Fast and easy meals are all we are doing. We will all chip in and help you. Give the office a call or email centluth@hbci.com to join the fun and the chatter.
Please give this some prayerful thought. Peace, Connie

Central Lutheran Church
Child Care Center
May 2015

Mission: Provide the building blocks of child care by creating learning opportunities infused with faith while supporting the whole family.

Center construction update
Replacing loss content within the center is on hold as we wait until we receive the final reimbursements from the insurance company. Thank you for donations made to water damage repair. We appreciate each and every donation.

We will be hosting a Sunday open house and inviting the congregation to tour your new center. We are very proud of the child care ministry we offer the community. Stay tuned for the Open House date.

Dancing with the Winona Stars! The KID CREW 2!
Our Center has been asked to defend our title as Group Champion this Aug 15th. We have a talented team of 10 individuals dusting off their dancing shoes! Along with this honor the hosting organization is expected to raise funds toward their cause. We are thrilled for this opportunity and all fundraising will go toward the playground and its relocation.
Mark your calendars for these fun fundraising events:

May 19th – Culver’s Night
Come eat between 5pm-8pm and have Child Care Center staff bring your food out to you! 10% of all sales come back to the center.

May 30th – Kid’s Carnival & Chicken Q
Come for a ½ chicken meal only $9.00 and stay for activities at this family friendly event. We’ve been awarded Thrivent matching funds up to $250 for this event. We’ll have games, bouncy houses, cotton candy, Scholastic Book Fair and multiple emergency vehicles to see first hand. Reserve your Chicken-Q ticket today!

Check here next month for more fun adventures as we build a playground together!

Note: All fundraising events are in conjunction with Dancing with the Winona Stars and each $ = 1 vote.

 Welcoming All Growing Faith
Engaging Worship Compassionate Service
Central Lutheran Church Council Minutes: 3/19/15

Present: Jack Richter, Pr. Michelle Rem, Carol Kramer, Sean Gotz, Julie Palubicki, Judy Davis, Ed Berkley, Steve Everson
Excused: Samantha Wagner
Call to Order: President, Jack Richter

Secretary’s Report - Carol: Judy/Julie MSP to approve 2/19/15 Council Meeting minutes.

Treasurer’s Report - Ed: The month of February was down $4,258 from budgeted income and expenses were $1,705 higher than budget even though there were larger than normal maintenance and utility expenses of $4,300. So the rest of the Church expenses were better than budget. Update on the “flood” damage is we have received $63,153 in insurance payments to date including $5,000 in fund raising and donations. We expect additional insurance payments between $26,000 and $28,000. Some of the last items will be covered by the Childcare budget. We have come through well considering the extent of the damage. Judy/Sean MSP to approve Treasurer’s report.

Discussion items:

Call Committee Update - Steve – After discussion of the revised job description for the Pastor of Children, Youth and Family Faith Formation position, Ed/Judy MSP to approve the job description. The Executive Committee will assist in determining salary as well as pre-authorize interview expenses. Ed/Julie MSP to add Marylou Hurley to the Call Committee.

Cedar Valley Partnership Status - Ed - In order to move ahead with the call process, the current agreement with Cedar Valley Lutheran Church must be addressed. Following a discussion, Judy/Ed MSP moved to meet with Cedar Valley Lutheran Church to proceed with an amiable resolution. Ed will meet with the joint council. Steve will clarify the required percentage of the congregational vote needed for acceptance of a change to the current agreement. Request for Council to Serve at the Feast in April - Council members will assist as time/availability allows and commit to serving on a date to be determined in October, 2015.

Donation Designation Options – Pr. Rem presented a “wish list” of items to be maintained by Council and utilized at times when donations are available. Lutheran Campus Center - Jack – Central’s Lutheran Campus Center representative, Bev Spande, has asked Council for support in filling Board member positions. If interested, contact Bev. A request will also be put in the weekly bulletin.

Strategies for Sharing the Vision and Mission with the Congregation - Pr. Rem – Examples of the branding documents were presented and discussed. A brainstorming session on Council’s action plan to address/achieve specific goals followed. A separate meeting will be scheduled after Easter to develop a plan for introducing and articulating Central’s vision and pillars to the congregation. All are to send Pr. Rem a message with a Saturday morning availability date.

Next Meeting Agenda Items: Continue with Strategies for Sharing the Vision & Mission with the Congregation, Call Committee Update, Cedar Valley Partnership Update Ed/Julie MSP to close the meeting.

Closed with the Lord’s Prayer

Respectfully submitted, Carol Kramer Secretary

Bylaws Committee And Call Committee Congregational Information meeting - May 31

On Sunday, May 31st at 10:15 am the Bylaws committee will present our updated bylaws. This will be an opportunity to see what is new in the bylaws and to ask questions.

After this presentation the Call Committee will explain where we are in the process and will ask for input from the congregation about the call process and the "Ministry Site Profile". This is a document that describes who we are as a church and community and what is important to us.

“We are ‘Central’ to Winona, disciples of Jesus living a vibrant faith.”
Council Reports-April 2015:

Pastor Michelle M. Rem:

Youth: The youth have been working very hard trying to earn enough to attend the National Youth Gathering and Mission trips this summer. The National Youth Gathering is very expensive. In addition to all of their other fundraising efforts, the Youth are hosting an all-you-can-eat spaghetti dinner on Sat. June 6 from 4:00 – 8:30. If successful, it could potentially be an annual fundraiser for them, possibly eliminating the need for several of their smaller fundraisers. Wednesday Night Workshop is holding their final lessons and will close the year with a parent/child faith talk night. Worship and Music: Hospitality – The Team has adjusted their standard meeting date and so has not met since our last Council meeting. They are now meeting on the 4th Monday at 6pm. They are exploring worship environment issues with parishioners and working hard to strengthen the Altar Guild ministry. An altar guild tea is planned for April 30. Website: The website now has links for faith formation activities and devotional resources, links to Erik’s blog, updated child care information, etc. It is coming together. Milestone Ministry: Thank you to Judy Davis for teaching the 5th/6th grade communion milestone. It was a fun day for the parents and children. We honored them in worship on Sunday the 12th. Call Committee: Is working on the paperwork necessary for the call process. Their next meeting is May 11 at 7pm. They will be holding some listening posts in June. Bylaw Team: The Bylaw Team has finalized their work. They will hold an information session in June before the semi-annual meeting to share information about what has been changed and why.

Small Group, Service & Social Ministries-Connie Larson

We had a great Women’s Retreat this past Sat. Pr. Corrine Den is shared some Earth Day thoughts with us. Fred Welke is organizing a Feast night to be a fundraiser for a new freezer. He has applied for Thrivent funds as seed money to help purchase the food. The Feast Group met earlier this month. They have decided to take the month of July off. As always we are in need of cooks and volunteers.

Social Concerns is very excited to have won the Winona Volunteer Services Church Foodshare challenge. We are preparing for Krystin Fryer to come in June. Krystin is serving in Egypt.

Worship, Music & Arts-Erik Floan: Holy Week/Easter services were well-attended despite school break. Easter Vigil was particularly marvelous with strong and creative story-tellers, attendance exceeding expectations, and a great reception which included dancing! Songs for a Good Shepherd: An Eastertide Hymn Festival scheduled for April 26 during worship. All-Bach Organ Concert featuring many community members on Sunday May 3, 3pm at Central. Worship Topics & Taboos is offered Sundays 9:15 am. Schedule is included at the end of this report. Due to popular demand the session on Stained Glass Windows and Needlepoint Kneelers will be repeated at some future point. Worship Topics & Taboos: Sundays at 9:15 am join Erik Floan, Director of Worship Music & Arts, as we explore a variety of worship topics & taboos. April 12 Architecture for Worship: The story of Central’s Stained Glass Windows & Needlepoint Kneelers. April 19 The Sacrament of Holy Baptism: Rites & Traditions, Myths & Misunderstandings. Statement: In 2014 nearly forty persons were baptized out of Central Lutheran Church. Questions: But what difference does Baptism make in Central’s common life, and the newly baptized families’ lives? April 26 The Sacrament of Holy Communion: A Sacred Meal, an American Accident. “More ink has been spilled in controversy over it than wine spilled in celebration of it.” Why do we have so many names for the Sacrament of the Altar, Eucharist, Holy Communion? Why do some churches celebrate weekly and other monthly or less? Which is the most valid: real bread or thin wafers; wine or grape juice; common cup, individual cups, pouring chalices, or intinction? May 3 A Naughty Hymn Festival: We don’t hate the Catholics, really...There are hymn texts we simply don’t sing anymore, for a variety of reasons. For example, nobody should miss singing this text penned by Martin Luther himself: “Lord, keep us in thy Word and work, Restrain the murderous Pope and Turk…” Come enjoy some quirky, odd, colorful, and a few downright shocking hymns which we won’t be singing at worship. May 10 Repitching the Tent: The intersection of architecture, worship, & faith formation. Ever since Israel carted the Ark of the Covenant around the desert and then Solomon built his grand Temple God’s people have experienced a variety of Sacred Architecture. How does architecture influence worship and faith, and how do faith and worship influence architecture? How did Christian architecture evolve? What does a worship space “say” about us and to us? What are the strengths and barriers of Central’s worship space? May 17 at NOON Tour of Willet Hauser Stained Glass Studios.

Child Care Center-Kelly Dicke: Programming: The New Year’s Flood….We are working with insurance to get reimbursement for our depreciation and solid surface counter-tops. Once we have the reimbursement, we will be able to focus on the final phases of content loss and purchase $16,000 worth of equipment that has been ruined within the flood. We will be hosting an open house after church services, once completed.

Installation of toddler height railings in the stair case per Licensing request – late fall 2015; Lower level classroom bathrooms retiled and upgraded – pending funding; Installation of Infant/ Toddler playground – we have funding, pending wall leaking downstairs; Possible additional Toddler classroom – pending visit from Fire Marshall.
